SHUTTLE BUS INFORMATION

The New York Produce Show and Conference has contracted a local bus company to take you from the New York Hilton to the Javits Center North Hall and back all day long on Tuesday and Wednesday. We have three 56-seat buses continuously leaving from both venues on Tuesday for exhibitor transport, and thirteen 56-seat buses continuously leaving from both venues on Wednesday for all show attendees, so there shouldn't be any reason to drive or take a taxicab back and forth.

The buses are scheduled to begin departures from the Hilton on TUESDAY at 9:30 am and WEDNESDAY at 7:00 am, with continuous service all day.

Please note that the first week of December is one of the busiest times of the year in NYC, especially with increased traffic in Midtown, where the Rockefeller Center hosts the annual Christmas Tree lighting ceremony. It is recommended that you give yourself AT LEAST one-half hour to travel from the Hotel to the Javits Center, so please plan accordingly.

Our shuttle buses are also equipped to haul luggage or carried booth materials so we recommend that you use this service as your primary mode of transportation. However, if you wish to drive to Javits, there are several self-parking lots nearby and we have arranged for VALET parking at Javits for a nominal fee. (Please see the section about VALET PARKING.)

PARKING AT THE HILTON

Parking at the New York Hilton is very convenient and is right on the property of the hotel. Since self-parking becomes more difficult as you approach the Javits Center, we recommend you leave your car at the Hilton and use our shuttle bus service. If you have booth materials that need to be dropped off at the Javits Center, we have arranged for easy-dropoff there, but you can't leave your car parked in front of the Javits Center. Please consider using our shuttle buses for transport from the Hilton to the Javits Center.
